TEMPE KNIGHTS SEMI ANNUAL INSTALLATION

Special Program of Pythians This Evening at the Lodge Hall

Tempe Pythians are going to have some real live times at Castle Hall this evening in view of the semi-annual installation of officers and an extra lot of business which is due to come in for consideration at the evening session of the lodge. The Pythian sisters, their escorts, and the wives and lady friends of the Knights will all be there to witness the installation ceremony and to enjoy the ice-cold watermelon feast.

These are the officers duly elected at a recent meeting and due to take over the reins of authority at this evening's meeting: J. W. Arnold, chancellor; E. P. Carr, vice chancellor; R. H. Alexander, prelate; James A. Blakley, master at arms; D. G. Buck, master of work; A. B. Clark, keeper of records and seals; S. J. Jennings, master of finance; J. B. Mullen, master of exchequer; J. T. Ainsworth, inner guardian; A. A. Wood, outer guardian.

All people of Tempe in any way related to the Tempe lodge, No. 36, Knights of Pythias, are due to be in attendance this evening. Knights have seen that their wives and lady friends are to be there, while the invitation has been officially passed along to the Pythian Sisters inviting the presence of themselves and escorts.

The evening's program will open with a regular session of the Knights' lodge. Immediately following will be the installation ceremony which will be viewed by the guests as well. Lastly comes the watermelon feast and general social hour.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

Several cases were before Justice of the Peace E. P. Carr yesterday for disposition. One, the case of two Mexicans arrested on the Fourth of July for celebrating a little too freely with fire water, was dismissed with a $5 fine assessed against each individual. The case of Rivas and Celaya, also arrested on the evening of the Fourth for assault was bound over awaiting the presence of County Attorney Lyman to take up the case for the state. The two offenders were committed to the county jail in Phoenix to await trial some time this week.

HOW MEXICO LOOKS

Precinct Constable R. C. Estrada, returned Sunday evening from a week's business trip to Southern Arizona and into Old Mexico. By way of Nogales Estrada hoped to cross the line and venture into Mexico as far as Altar, Sonora. But friendly advice from soldiers effected that it was decidedly dangerous for one to undertake visiting at random through the war-torn country, soon stayed previous intentions in the mind of Estrada and he was satisfied to remain within close proximity to the border. War maneuvers along the border and in interior Mexico are still quite active, giving every indication, according to Estrada, that differences in the old country are still far from settled.

The class of local ladies recently organized to study parliamentary law will meet Wednesday at 3 o'clock with Mrs. W. H. Strong at her residence on West Sixth. All women interested in the work are invited to be present.

A FAMILIAR FACE

The presence of Andrew Nielsen in town yesterday made things look like old times. Mr. Nielsen has been in the valley for some time but was unable to pay Tempe his expected visit until yesterday. He will be located here for several days straightening up business interests before returning to his home in San Diego, California.

C. P. Mullen arrived in the valley from Flagstaff on Sunday to take care of his local interests for a few days. For several weeks he has been one of the members of the Mullen camping party which has held forth at Oak Creek near Flagstaff. The C. P. Mullen family made the trip north from Tempe some time ago by auto, but in preference to a hurried overland trip to the valley again, Mr. Mullen chose the Santa Fe for transportation.

CHANDLER

Chandler congratulates itself that it had such a beautiful Fourth of July celebration and that there was not a single accident or mishap to mar the day. It was like one big family enjoying itself and each person was trying to see that his neighbor had his share of the fun. The day wound up with excellent pictures on the roof garden of the Hotel San Marcos and an excellent display of fireworks that could be enjoyed by the many dinner parties on the roof.

A very pretty little dinner was given on the roof garden on Friday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Garvin and their guest, Miss Beatrice Davis of Pomona, Calif. Covers were spread for the following persons: all of Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loftus, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Berg, Mr. James, Mrs. Geo. P. Lewis, Webster Lewis, Miss Grosse and Mr. Armstrong. It was a happy gathering under Arizona's starlit sky and will be long remembered.

Week end visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Halstead of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hanna, J. A. Hanna, C. H. Fitch and wife and Grant Fitch all of Phoenix. Tuesday evening Mary Pickford will be portrayed in "Caprice," a delightful comedy-drama of society, love and the great out doors.

MESA'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE NEWS OF THE DAY

SHIPMENTS HEAVY

Cantaloupe shipping season is on in full blast and every day witnesses an increased shipment to the east. Four Chicago firms have local representatives on the field and the competitive bidding on the crop has assured a good strong price for the melons. Sunday, thirteen carloads were gotten off and yesterday exactly thirty carloads were shipped out. Local representatives are figuring on thirty days or more of exceptional activity in getting local cantaloupes off to the eastern markets and the large shipment of Monday is considered but a beginning of increasingly large shipments every day for the next month. The shipment planned for today will equal that of Monday. Cantaloupe growers are elated with the prospect and expect big things this season. It is now but a question of handling and clear weather. The melons are in sight, and this is undoubtedly the best crop that Mesa has known.

FIRST CARLOAD OF GRAPES

The first load of grapes to leave Mesa this season was shipped out Monday by the local representative of the C. H. Weaver & Co. of Chicago. The grapes were from the vineyards of Don C. Babbitt and Frank Openshaw. Two carloads are to go out this morning. Good prices are assured for the Thompson seedless on the eastern markets, and shipments will be rushed out of Mesa for the next ten days or two weeks.

LEAVE FOR KANSAS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Jones left Monday for Chanute, Kansas, where they will visit Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Turner for a while. Mr. Jones has business interests that will keep him in Kansas for several months. They will probably visit in Illinois before returning to Mesa.

FOURTH OF JULY ENTHUSIASTS

The Mesa police court Monday was busied for a while listening to the apologetic made by those who were too enthusiastic in their celebration of Independence on the Fourth. Ramon Navarro, who has been there before, went there again for about seven days to work for the good of the town. His chum, Jose Recamon, had to pay seven dollars to keep out of jail. This couple were rounded up by Officer Gilbert.

Marshal Peyton interfered and busted up a nice little scrap, when Joe Soto and P. Arviso fell out and started to fight. Sunday they spent quietly in the Mesa calaboose and Monday contributed to the city some few dollars in the way of fines.

MEXICANS ON RAMPAGE

Peter Salazar and one Mendible, properly armed with the ardent, went on a rampage Sunday and put a colony of Mexicans near Chandler to route. Constable Burton of Mesa was

By order of Board of Supervisors, Maricopa County.
JAMES MILLER, JR., Clerk, phoned for and he hustled out to the scene of combat, where he was received by the entire populace, who besought that the disturbers of the peace be allowed to pursue the uneven tenor of their way without violence. Officer Burton, however, gathered them in and they were contributors to the superior court of Mesa precinct, when haled before Judge Geo. S. Irwin Monday.

PROMINENT MEXICAN DIES

Leonardo Garcia, a prominent resident of the Mexican colony, died Sunday afternoon at his home in the northern part of Mesa. Garcia was an old timer here, was a farmer and popular among both Mexican and white people. His funeral was held Monday afternoon at the Burton undertaking parlors and interment made in the local cemetery.

RESUME WORK ON SCHOOL BUILDING

After having been shut down for some ten days on account of lack of material, work was resumed Monday on the erection of the new grammar school building on Main street. Contractor Steele had a full force of men working today and expects to keep them busy from now on. The steel eyes, floor joists, etc., arrived Saturday and was hauled to the site Monday and building will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

LIFE INSURANCE MEN HERE

H. W. Rountree of Phoenix, general agent for the Two-Republics Life Insurance company of El Paso, Texas, was in Mesa Friday accompanied by Charles R. Russell, superintendent of the agency force of the company. The men were here looking over the field and boosting for the company, for which Mr. Rountree has been waging a pretty vigorous campaign for several weeks in this section. Mr. Russell was enthusiastic over the crop outlook in this section.

BORROWS HORSE AND STEALS MELONS

Deputy Sheriff W. P. Pleasant of Chandler called Judge Geo. S. Irwin Sunday night and informed him that somebody had been stealing watermelons in Mr. Blackshire's melon patch and being hard pressed, had skipped off without a horse, which was evidently left in payment for the melons.

Not knowing of the fact that his horse had been left in unconscious pawn, Domingo Manuel, an Indian of the Salt River reservation, who had been informed that a horse that someone had stolen from him was in the Chandler neighborhood, went over and identified the animal. Admitting ownership of the horse explanations were called for. Manuel said that his horse had been stolen Saturday night, after he had returned from spending the Fourth in Phoenix and that he had been informed Sunday that he would probably find it in Mesa. He denied any knowledge of the melon thief. His story was straight and Judge Geo. Irwin let him go.

Several parties motored to Granite Reef and spent the afternoon swimming Sunday. A good swimming hole was located by one of the parties, and the water is said to be clear and fresh from a nearby spring.

They returned in the evening by moonlight and all report having had an enjoyable time. The party was made up of the following: Messdames Kant, Flock, Cartmel, Gump, Myers, Garrick, J. F. Lewis, Pinnell, Messrs. Gant, Flock, Myers, Pinnell, Carrick, Lewis, Gump, Brooks and Miss Elsie Harrington.

Harry T. Conner returned yesterday afternoon from a several days' stay in Prescott taking in the Frontier Days celebration, and reports having had a very pleasant time.

E. C. Evans, an experienced cantaloupe picker is a recent arrival from Prescott, coming to assist in the local harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Cox spent the fourth in Phoenix.

RETURNS FROM PARKER

Ed Smith, pleasantly remembered as being associated with the Sample & More Market for several months, but who has been in Parker since last November, has returned to Glendale and is with them once more. Ed says he is very glad to get back home again.

A jolly crowd motored from here to Riverside last Sunday evening, where they enjoyed the several attractions till a late hour.

SIDEWALK IMPROVEMENTS

Cement sidewalk is being laid on North First avenue in front of the lots owned by Sample & More, and the Odd Fellows Lodge, and in front of the Rainbow theater. This will give an unbroken stretch from the City Hall to the F. T. Patterson harness shop and is a great improvement for that block.

J. A. Gabriel accompanied by R. E. Grijalva of the Glendale Lumber Company left Prescott Sunday morning at 5 o'clock and didn't get here till three Monday morning, encountering the trouble and sustaining a broken radiator.

A very enjoyable time was had by everyone at the picnic held the Fourth of July in the H. C. Mann grove midway between Glendale and Peoria.
